Interactive comment on “The support of multidimensional approaches in integrate monitoring for SEA: a case of study” by C. M. Torre and M. Selicato

This manuscript describes an innovative and interesting approach to the monitoring phase in Strategic Environmental Assessment (SEA), with particular attention to control over time the level of human pressure on land. Particularly interesting is the monitoring system able to provide an automatic alert in case dimension and velocity of land use change overpass some environmental thresholds. Also the use of satellite land use maps and the integration between GIS and multicriteria evaluation (AHP method) is very significant. I think the manuscript could be improved clarifying some points (see below) and I recommend the article to be accepted after the suggested revisions.
